Do You Wart a Servant or a House?—
If so, don't go about the streets inquiring, wasting your breath and shoe-leather, but ask the question of twenty thousand people at once, by inserting an advertisement in columns of the Daily Press.

MAN DROWNED,-A man named George Wilson, residing some place on Sixth-street Hill, fell into the river, from a flatboat which was lying near the mouth of the Miami Canal, yesterday afternoon and was drowned.
His body has not yet been recovered.

Bunglary in Broadway.—The residence of Captain Richardson, at the corner of Newstreet and Broadway, was feloniously entered last night and robbed of a small sum of money. The burglar used a ladder and entered a window in the second story, at the rear of the house, but was discovered before he had completed his business, and professionataly made his secone. unfortunately made his escape.

RESULT OF A RECENT ASSAULT WITH IN-TENT TO KILL.—Hanson Bailey, who was arrested a few days ago charged with as-saulting with intent to kill Sarah Freder-icks, was arraigned before Judge Lowe yesterday morning. The woman has almost recovered from her injuries, and the defend-ant was sentenced to the dungeon of the County Jail for a term of ten days.

Accident From the Use of Camphene.—
The family of J. C. Grannan, residing in Front-street, near Plum, was startled last evening, about eight o'clock, by the explosion of a camphene-lamp, which was burning on a bureau in a room in which its members were assembled. Luckily, no injury was done, save the destruction of the lamp, but it will serve as another warning of the folly of using this diabolical compound smp, but it will serve as another the folly of using this diabolical compound as a burning-fluid.

Sheriff's Sale of Real Estate.—The regular weekly sale of real estate, held by the Sheriff in the rotunds of the Conthouse, was not largely attended yesterday morning. A number of lots were offered for sale, but owing to a want of bidders, only one was sold as follows:

Five acres from the west side of a tract of land containing 53½ acres, situated in sec-tions two and three, township four and range one of the Miami Purchase; valued at $40 and Man Found Drowned.—The body of a German, about forty-five years of age, was found in the river on Tuesday evening, at the foot of Vine-street. It was covered with gray satinet pants, check shirt, knit undershirt, drawers and pes-jacket, and a satin vest. In one of the pockets a naturalization paper belonging to Francis Cornelius was found, on the back of which, in pencil-mark, some one had bequeathed to F. Fohrman all his household furniture and personal effects. The deceased was about five feet eight Inches high, had brown hair and red whiskers. An inquest was held by Coroner Carey, which resulted in a verdict of accidental drowning. Since the above was written, we have learned that he resided at No. 121 Pleasant-street, MAN FOUND DROWNED .- The body of a Gerthat he resided at No. 121 Pleasant-street.

IMPORTANT TO THE DETECTIVE POLICE,— By a proclamation, which may be found in another column, Mayor Bishop offers a re-ward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of any person who may vote illegally at the cleation, on Tuesday next. This will doubt-less cause the polls to be thoroughly watched, and those who are in the habit of voting in two or three different wards, will be very likely to be caught.

The Mayer has also offered a reward of $500 for the arrest of the horoids of round $500 for the arrest of the homicide of young Guelich. This unfortunate affair took place just a week ago, and since Knabe pass into the alley next to the St. Charles, Third-street, near Sycamore, we do not be-lieve he has been seen by any one with whom he was previously acquainted, not-withstanding reports to the contrary. The fact that he has been in the country but a few months, and his necessarily very limited circle of acquaintances, will render his ar-rest extremely difficult.

The Southern Railway Connection— Meeting of the Committee.—A meeting of the committee appointed at the meeting of cit-izens at the Merchants' Exchange, to take izens at the Merchants' Exchange, to take charge of matters connected with a rail connection with the South, was held at the Burnet House day before yesterday. Messrs. Larz Anderson, Robert Mitchell, Joseph Torrence and William Ernst were present. In the absence of the Chairman, William H. Clement, Lars Anderson was called to preside, and Joseph Torrence was appointed Secretary.

occurred at Pittsburg. Peno., on Penn-street, near the river, on Wednesday morning, in Miller & Johnson's planing-mill, which was destroyed, with a box factory and several dwellings-houses, involving a loss of about $18,000 to $20,000, upon which there was a partial insurance.

AMUSEMENTS

NATIONAL THEATER, - When Jane Coomby appeared at the Opera-house last winter we were the first, we believe, to notice her faults, and we are now glad to be the first to notice her improvement. Not that she has entirely recovered from them, but they are not so grarker, and we feel assured that the discipline the has given herself will, if continued, eventually reform them altogether.

been expected, the announcement drew an immense crowd.

The weather was very pleasant; the air balmy and delicious; the sky soft and clear; and in addition to the fashionable promenaders, that on such atternoons throng Fourthstreet, persons of all classes, ages, sexes and conditions gathered together, and filled Vine-street, an hour before the appointed time and with a stringer which in a latter. The part of "Mrs. Haller" is wholly unworthy of her, and her talent and power might be need much better than in the representation of such a characbetter than in the representation of such a character, nevertheless, the last act—which was all we saw of the performance—was rendered in an extremely artistic manner. She has the labelity of appearing natural; of making her hoavers believe that she feels the artist also feels the artist appearing natural; of making a reality from what was but so units.

This is her acting; but her reading must undargo a further improvement. Her tones and the inflections of her voice—which, by the way, is very powerful, sweet, flexible and altogether amiable—are hadly managed, and yet they seem wholly under her time, and with a patience which in a better time, and with a patience which in a better cause would have forsaken them, waited until nearly five o'clock, before the rope-walker made her appearance.

At length a murmur ran through the crowd, and a female, not remarkably prepossessing in her appearance, dressed in ordinary hallet contume, introduced herself to badly managed, and yet they seem wholly under her control, giving every reason to believe her faults of snunciation could be remedied immediately. She will appear this evening, the proceeds being set spart for her benefit, in a new play entitled Ada; crowd, and a female, not remarkably prepossessing in her appearance, dressed in ordinary ballet costume, introduced herself to the public with a balance-pole in her hand, and prepared for her journey. She was evidently alarmed, and looked very much like one, who, in theatrical parlance, had been seized with a stage-fright.

Doubtless, believing with "Lady Macbeth" that if she could but screw her courage to the sticking-point, she would not fail, she started on her hazardous walk. The exhibition was remarkable in some respects. or The Doon of Firthe and Sharidan Knowle's comedy of The Love Chave. With such a programms the National to-night should be crowded. PIKE'S OPERA-ROUSE,-Geraldine will be performed for the fifth time, at the Opera-house, to-night, for the benefit of Miss Bateman. The andience last evening was fair in point of numbers, and excellent in point of quality, and the performance passed off agreeably.

Susan Denin, who, during the past week, has been occupying the position of seaferth, will appear as "Fanny Gribbles," in the farce of The Stope-struck Chambermoid. Ber impersonations in this line have been capital, and we doubt not her performance to-stable will even law former effect of the work.

night will excel any former effort of the week.

Woods' Theathr.—The Siegrist and Zanfretti ballet troupe will appear to-night for the last time but one, in a number of exercises on the tight-rope, cymnastic feats, a ballet and a pantomime, thus furnishing a variety which deserves and should attract a large audience.

SMITH & NIXON'S HALL,-Thiodon's Museum of Aris may be seen nightly at this establish-ment. Mr. I. W. Gouest, we believe, has become connected with the Museum, and, we doubt not, under his management, it will meet with an increased

The will of Chas. Decker, late of Lick Rus, was admitted to Probate. The testator leaves all his property to his wife.

COVINGTON NEWS.

Police Court.—A number of small cases were disposed of in the Police Court resterday, some of which deserve particular attention.

Correction.—The elopement noticed in our yesterday's issue did not result so seriously as was anticipated. The young lady had go se to the house of a relative, unaccommined by her laver, and, after remaining there about a day and a half, was induced to return to her parents.

Excursion to Augusta.—An excursion to Augusta, Bracken County, Kontucky—on the occasion of the dedication of the new church in that town—will take place on Sunday next, the 7th instant. Boats will leave Covington at six and a half o'clock, and Cincinnati at seven e clock, precisely.

Oddification of Fark.—The following cons-ODDFELLOWS FAIR.—The following committee has been appointed to superintend the distribution of the prizes to be awarded to the holders of season-tickets to the Oddfellows Fairs, J. Seilers, Covington; Wm. Chideey and George A. Peter, Cincimatij, R. B. McCracken, Newport, Dr. Johns, Independence. The drawings will be public, and will remnence at eight o'clock A. M. on Tuesday, October 16.

CITY PARKS .- The President of the City Council submitted the following communicate that body, last night:

To Wiss. Erast:

I am informed that the citizens and the City Council of Covington contempiate purchasing grounds for a Fark, or public ground. Mrs. Resina
E. Greesbeck has autherized me to say to your City Council that she will dispose of her massion-house and grounds attached, on very favorable terms.

May I sak of you the favor to submit the subject to your Conneil, and if it meets with favor, I will be bliged if the Council will suggest the plan, either

ADULTERY CASE.—Charles Ludaker, whose arrest we noticed yesterday, and who, we learn, is not a preacher, was brought before the Mayer yesterday morning, when it appeared that he was not married to the woman who claimed to be his wife, and who was the prosecuting witness; and, as she discovered that she was equally liable with him, the prosecution was dismissed, and the two were married, their seven children being present to witness the ceremony.

NEW METHOD OF SWINDLING .- For two or NEW METHOD OF SWINDLING.—For two or three nights past, some sharper has been collecting fare at the east end of the Covingten and Newport Bridge, from such persons as do not know the rules of the company. In order that the swindle may not be repeated, we will state that no fare is collected at the east end of the bridge after six o clock P. M.

RIVER NEWS.

The Ohio opposite this port has altered very little since our last issue, having comb to a stand at a late hour night before last, and so remaining up to last evening, when there were less than five and a half feet of water in the channel at this point. At Pittaburg, the river was receding yesterday, with six feet three inches there at noon. yesterday, with six feet three inches there at moon. Yesterday continued very pleasant, but rather warm and suitry for October, the mercury reaching 80° in the shade. The atmosphere still indicated rain, but none fell. Business was fair on the Landing, though freights were offered with less freedom than on Wednesday. Yor the upper ports there were no basis, but for the lower there was sufficient runnage to irrecaporal the freight offered. Bates were rather irregular, but unchanged.

Yesterday's Louisville Courier has this informa Testeroay's Louisville Coorser has this information:

The river was falling again yesterday, and had recaded an inch at dark, with three fiest one inch water in the Canal, by the mark. On the bar, at Pertiand, there were four fost water. The weather was cloudy and warm all day, with an east wind prevailing until evening, when it shifted to the south, and was very warm, with light rains.

The officers of the mail-boat, yesterday, reported but four and a half first water on the Plate, and failing. On the Pertiand and, New Albany Bar there are but little over four fast water, and the officers of the Jesser K. Bell, and other boats that arrived yenterday, report but three feet on the bar at Scutlletown, and a good many boats delained there.

The Fannis Pearson, bound for New Orleans, had got over the bar, but her bargs was aground. The got over the bar, but her bargs was aground. The Cime was also on the bar, the Silver Wave and Seeler above the bar, and the Shanny Scuth lying to below. Several boats were aground at French Island and other rises.

The Rese Douglas, lately sunk in White Siver, will probably be raised. The boat lies straight, with her bow on the bar and her stern in eighteen feet water. The hole is in the larboard how, about eight feet long and eighteen inches wide. She lies twenty miles below Des Arc. Nearly all the freight was damaged.

The editor of the Enginee, however, says that I read a confine. three or four lines. The editor of the En-guirer, however, says that I read a sentence from what I called a letter. To this I will simply add, that I read about one-half of the letter, and you, Mr. Long, know that what I did read was what appeared in print as the letter of Dr. Close. That letter, dated Sep-tember 27, came to me last Saturday, and you saw it in my hand on Monday, and sev-

I like the Orthodox and Christian spirit of your remarks on the Courier's protest against the prayer offered by the Bishop of Ohio for the Queen; the more so as some of us have noticed in the Parss what we feared were symptoms of a slight falling away in those qualities. But, do you think it good tact to improve the occasion of the presence of the Prince, to introduce into the regular service an irregular prayer for the health and long life of the Queen, whom he is to succeed? Might it not be regarded by a sensitive youth, who had already been subjected to some rude criticism in this city, as a reflection on his capacity or promise? I, of course, acquit the Bishop of any such intention; but might not a morbidly-sensitive organization so misconstrue it?
